Sept. 1-3, 2009, Beijing, China

The Final Announcement

ChinaNANO 2009

International Conference on Nanoscience and Technology,

China 2009

September 1-3, 2009, Beijing, China

Beijing International Convention Center

PRESENTATION GUIDELINE

Oral Presentation

Each oral presentation will be 15 minutes in total. The speaker is asked to prepare a 10-minute speech, followed by a 5-minute time for questions and discussions. Multi-media projector with personal computer will be available for presentations. Multi-media presentations should be prepared in Windows compatible format in English. The presentation file should be pre-loaded in the conference computer at least 15 minutes before the session begins.

Poster Presentation

1. Display board

A display board with 120cm high by 90cm wide will be provided for each poster presentation. The poster can be mounted with adhesive bands, which will be provided at the registration site.

2. General Appearance

Poster presentation should include the title, abstract, main text, figures and/or tables, diagrams and conclusions. Please include your contact data (names, institute, address, phone, fax, e-mail). Use of color in the poster presentation makes visual communication more effective. Textual and graphic illustrations should be kept simple but effective.

3. Lettering

All poster lettering should be typewritten. Since your poster will be read at distance of a couple of meters, use appropriate size lettering.

4. Set-up and Presentation

Authors or their representative must be in attendance to set-up their display and to present their posters at the session time designated in the scientific program.

BEST POSTER AWARD

ChinaNANO 2009 will feature a Best Poster Award, which will be presented at the closing ceremony of the conference. Twenty best posters will be selected by the Scientific Committee of ChinaNANO 2009 during the conference, ten for regular authors and ten for students. If you are student poster author, please take a special logo at the registration site to stick on your poster.

PROCEEDING OF CONFERENCE

Selected papers after peer-review will be published as a proceeding of ChinaNANO 2009 by American Scientific Publishers in its periodical “Journal of Nanoscience and Nanotechnology”, which will be available for general sales. Participants could reserve this proceeding at registration site with US$100/per book (about 1200 pages).
